

Accounting Vocabulary Crossword

Across

BE = British English

1. Customers who must pay us money are known as _____. (BE)
2. If you sell something for more money than it costs to produce, you make a _____.
3. The people we must pay money to are known as _____. (BE)
4. When a new invoice comes in, I _____ it to the trade creditors ledger.
5. Goods and products which the company has available to sell are known as _____. (BE)
6. The difference between debit side of the account and the credit side of the account: _____
7. If my colleague asks to use my pen and I say yes, she _____ my pen.
8. EBIT stands for "Earnings Before _____ and Tax"
9. Shareholders expect to receive a _____ if the company makes a profit.
10. Another word for "sales" (BE): _____

Down

1. If the company buys a building, I must _____ the fixed asset account.
11. If we pay cash for something, I must _____ the bank account.
12. Another verb meaning "rise" _____.
13. If my colleague asks to use my pen and I say yes, I _____ her my pen.
14. If the bank lends me money I have a _____.
15. People who invest in a company buy: _____
16. The opposite of an asset: _____
17. All income and expenditure must be _____.
18. Another word for "income": _____
19. Another word for "go down": _____